

Hunter Landscape's Core Values

Creativity
Dependability
Professionalism
Sensibility

When the Core Values are achieved the employee is reflecting not only the image of the company but also the components for excelling in their position.

Job Title: Landscape Installation Technician

Education/Knowledge: Industry based training such as Diploma or Apprenticeship studies OR Industry experience.

Abilities/Skills:

- High physical fitness
- Willingness to work outdoors in all weather conditions
- Positive attitude towards physical labour
- Punctuality
- Willingness to take instructions from Supervisor
- Initiative
- Ability to work as part of a group
- Willingness to maintain cleanliness of jobsite
- Respect towards equipment and tools
- Respect for clients' property
- Constant awareness of improving efficiencies
- Familiar with basic landscape construction techniques such as drainage, grading, base preparation, site services, paving, retaining walls, irrigation, low voltage lighting , basic carpentry and basic horticulture.

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Review instructions and layout of work before starting and acknowledge you understand; if you do not clarify any components with the Supervisor.
- Assemble tools needed, use them in a safe manner, return them to their proper place and condition.
- Ensure the best possible use of the materials provided is carried out to minimize waste and clean up from each task.